What We Believe (Study of the Apostle's Creed); By: Jeffrey Arnold; NavPress

If you had to communicate the essential teachings of Christianity to someone, where would you begin? That's the question the early believers began asking themselves within a century of Christ's resurrection. With a growing number of new believers to teach, and conflicting variations of the faith cropping up every day, they developed the Apostle's Creed to instill the core elements of the gospel in everyone's mind. Rooted in that Creed, this study guide will establish your group in the faith, and help you put your beliefs into practice wherever you live.

Author Margaret Feinberg says in her introduction to this new Women of Faith study, "The ultimate rest you will ever experience doesn't just take place during a nap or a lazy Sunday afternoon. Instead, it's found in God. He is the One who renews your weary soul. He is the One who gives you strength when you think you can't go any farther---emotionally, physically, spiritually, and relationally. The rest that God provides is like no other. Don't you think it's time that you take a break and enter into God's rest for you?"

Have a Mary Heart in a Martha's World; By: Joanna Weaver; Random House

The life of a woman today isn't really all that different from that of Mary and Martha in the New Testament. Like Mary, you long to sit at the Lord's feet...but the daily demands of a busy world just won't leave you alone. Like Martha, you love Jesus and really want to serve him...yet you struggle with weariness, resentment, and feelings of inadequacy. Then comes Jesus, right into the midst of your busy Mary/Martha life---and he extends the same invitation he issued long ago to the two sisters of Bethany. Tenderly he invites you to choose "the better part"---a joyful life of "living-room" intimacy with him that flows naturally into "kitchen service" for him.

Being God's Man in Tough Times; By: Stephen Arterburn; Waterbrook Press

David was to be the future king of Israel. And yet, the journey to that goal was filled with dangers, delays, and difficulties. Just like David, every man has a dream of who he wants to become. But getting there is a different story. Hardships and losses can destroy the faith—and even the life—of a lesser man. Many men fail to realize their dreams because they choose comfort over character, image over substance, and escape over endurance. But a man who knows how to embrace hardship and learn to mine it for God's purposes will see his godly dreams come true. Hardships are inevitable. Embracing them is a choice. God's dream for you is at stake. And Being God's Man...in Tough Times will equip you to overcome life's difficulties in the power and wisdom of God.

Being God's Man by Walking a New Path; By: Stephen Arterburn; Waterbrook Press.

Will you discover your true reason for living, enter the battle, and become a new man in Christ? Or will you settle for less? To live more purposefully, to experience a full life, to become more, you will have to become someone else and walk a new path. This kind of attitude is what the Navy Seals look for in a man: Rogue warriors. Unconventional. Committed. Guys who will do anything to win the battle and stay true to their new identities. Walking this new path requires men who won't shrink from the battle. If you choose to become this kind of man made new, unwilling to compromise, then let this great apostle lead the way.

What We Believe (Study of the Apostle's Creed); By: Jeffrey Arnold; NavPress

If you had to communicate the essential teachings of Christianity to someone, where would you begin? That's the question the early believers began asking themselves within a century of Christ's resurrection. With a growing number of new believers to teach, and conflicting variations of the faith cropping up every day, they developed the Apostle's Creed to instill the core elements of the gospel in everyone's mind. Rooted in that Creed, this study guide will establish your group in the faith, and help you put your beliefs into practice wherever you live.
